

Ardmore Organist Gives Recital

A program of classical and sacred music presented by Miss Claribel Thomson, organist and choir director of First Presbyterian Church, Ardmore, last night closed the week-long series of services in dedicating of the new First Presbyterian Church, Bethlehem.

Playing on the new $5,000 organ, Miss Thomson thrilled more than 800 persons attending the service with numbers by such great composers as Bach, Brahms and Schumann.

Miss Thomson opened her program with two numbers by Bach, Fugue in A Flat ("St. Anne"); and "Sheep May Safely Graze." Two choral preludes by Brahms, "O World, I E'en Must Leave Thee," and "My Heart Is Filled with Longing," followed.

Other selections presented were Canon in B Minor by Robert Schumann; "Piece Heroique" (Cedar Franck); "Rondo Francaise" (Leon Boellmann); Partita, "Christ Is Arisen" (Richard Purvis); Aria by Flor Peeters, and "Thou Art the Rock," (Henri Mulet).
